(Editor's note: Colin Flaherty has done more reporting than any other journalist on what appears to be a nationwide trend of skyrocketing black-on-white crime, violence and abuse. WND features these reports to counterbalance the virtual blackout by the rest of the media due to their concerns that reporting such incidents would be inflammatory or even racist. WND considers it racist not to report racial abuse solely because of the skin color of the perpetrators or victims.)

EDITOR'S NOTE: The links in the following report may contain offensive language.

He was black and angry. They were white and guilty, just the way he learned in school.

So he shot them.

That's the evidence that has emerged from the Atlanta trial of Nkosi Thandiwe, who has been sentenced to life in prison plus 65 years for shooting three white girls last year. One died, one is paralyzed.

According to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Thandiwe testified the reason he purchased a gun probably was "to enforce beliefs he'd developed about white people during his later years as an anthropology major at the University of West Georgia."

"I was trying to prove a point that Europeans had colonized the world, and as a result of that, we see a lot of evil today," he said. "In terms of slavery, it was something that needed to be answered for. I was trying to spread the message of making white people mend."

The report says the night before the shooting, he was at a "Peace Party," and was enraged that two white people were there.

"I was upset," Thandiwe said. "I was still upset Friday. I took the gun to work because I was still upset from Thursday night."

A jury found him guilty of murder – following a decision by a judge that just because he learned crazy things in school, that did not make him too crazy to stand trial.

See the Big List of black mob violence.

According to the CBS affiliate in Atlanta:

Thandiwe said during his last few years in college, his history studies changed his thoughts about how some white people treated black people.

> "In terms of slavery and race, it was something that needed to be answered for. I saw it as something that the black community hasn't recovered from so my initial way to handle that was to spread information to help combat some of the ignorance that was in the black community about our history," said Thandiwe.
> "Correct me if I'm wrong, but you were trying to spread the message of making white people the enemy," asked Assistant District Attorney Linda Dunikoski.
> "Yes," replied Thandiwe.

The shootings were Thandiwe's second episode of racial violence in less than a month. Thandiwe assailed a visiting courier with racial epithets and had to be physically restrained from striking and causing harm to visitors at a parking garage where he worked, said WSBTV News in Atlanta.

Racial resentment is the new mother's milk of education, said a prison psychologist who did not wish to be identified. Students, black and white, learn from their earliest days that blacks are victims and powerless to fight racism, he said.

Not just in school, but also in churches and from their parents, he said.

The attitude of victimization breeds resentment and violence.

"But most dangerous of all, black students are taught they are not responsible for their behavior because they are the victims of white racism," he said. "I see that every day in the prison where I work."

Examples abound: In Wilmington, N.C., Joshua Proutey was recently shot in the head and killed while being robbed by four black people who had targeted him because white people "were bound to have money."

One of the confessed killers, a 17-year old, said he did not like being "stereotyped as a tough guy."

In Chicago, the city recently agreed to pay $22.5 million to the victim of black mob violence because she was white and the city police released her into a "predominantly black" area, placing her in danger. A Harvard professor testified that because of what he called Routine Activities Theory, violence is an expected result in that situation.

In Wilmington, Del., the pastor of one of the largest black congregations in the state said: "This violence in our community – you don't think it has something to do with the last 400 years?"

Rev. Lawrence M. Livingston told the News Journal. "We didn't create this stuff – all this mess."

The comments came just a few days after a crowd of black people beat a white clergyman near Livingston's church.

These are just a few of the more than 400 examples of racial violence and lawlessness in more than 80 cities documented in "White Girl Bleed a Lot: The return of racial violence and how the media ignore it."

The flip side of the rising tide of black mob violence is what the prison psychologist calls "infantile omnipotence:"

This is the feeling that because something has not happened to you directly, you can ignore it. Like an infant who thinks it is not vulnerable to any danger because all it has ever known is the safety of the womb or the crib.

This is what accounts for widespread willingness to ignore the violence among members of the media and some members of the public, he said.

"Black people have been encouraged to hate whites and to discriminate against them from the so-called civil rights leaders," said author and syndicated talk show host Jesse Lee Peterson: "And that is evil. The evil will get worse from generation to generation if you don't deal with it."

Taleeb Starkes is a social worker, film maker and author of the book called "The Un-Civil War."

"These schools are reinforcing the long-existing, deep-rooted, victimization gospel that's religiously practiced in the African-American community," said Starkes. "Moreover, denunciation of this victimization gospel by any African-American is sacrilegious and leads to the questioning of 'blackness.' Even scarier is the fact that this ideology is spawning urban terrorists whose actions are always justified by another tenet of the victimization gospel called P.T.S.D (Post Traumatic Slavery Disorder)."

Starkes continued, "Combined with the race peddlers and the mainstream media's intentional portrayal of African-Americans as permanent victims incapable of hate-crimes, this self-defeating ideology has become a societal toxin. Consequently, any Black-on-White crime, regardless of viciousness, is essentially interpreted as Black 'payback' instead of Black crime. Alternatively, had this urban terrorist been a bloodthirsty White supremacist who mercilessly killed two unsuspecting Black women, Negro-geddon would have commenced."

People need to wake the hell up...Whites were slaves right along with the blacks..The only difference was that white slaves were considered less human than black slaves and black slaves did not want to be associated with the whites, so they had to keep their distance from them, just like your history teachers did.. Read some of the history your government doesn't want you to know about...They have us killing each other while they make a profit from it...The KKK was founded by democrats and black slaves set free by Republicans..Ok, so what, where does the reprieve for the white slaves come in? Oh, we must not talk about it, or the people might come together in unity and crush this socialist hate mongering group of atrocious elected dirty rats.

“In terms of slavery and race, it was something that needed to be answered for." EXCUSE ME?? Why are modern day people forced to pay for what ancestors did soooo long ago? I never owned slaves, my parents, grandparents and great grandparents never did either. Our family history does not go back any farther with enough clarity to know if anyone else did. But puh leeze!! This is outrageous thinking.

Modern Americans of African descent have historically been enslaved twice, once by bondage of body, and now again by bondage of mind. The overwhelming majority of so-called "African Americans" (my dominant ancestry is French and Irish, but you won't ever catch me claiming to be French-Irish-American) have been sociologically poisoned to believe that the "White Man" still clings to the choke collar of African slavery. And despite the fact that it's simply not true, the majority of the "Black" community is absolutely convinced that we "White Folk" are just chomping at the bit for an opportunity to "put y'all back in chains," as our esteemed Vice Retard, Joe Biden, told a group of Americans-Who-Just-So-Happen-To-Be-Of-Mostly-African-Descent not too long ago.

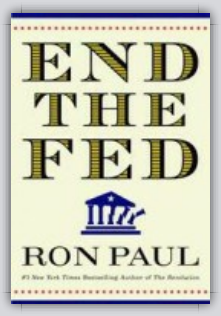
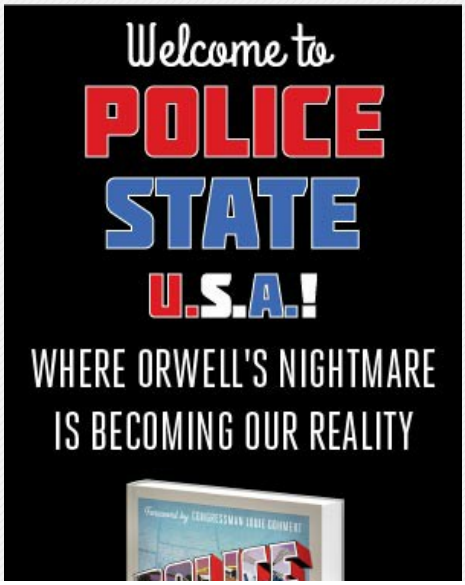
DEAL OF THE DAY



RON PAUL'S 'END THE FED' - $4.95 TODAY ONLY!

Constitutional champion exposes most dangerous institution in America



That most blessed patriot, modern-day saint, and martyr for truth named Martin Luther King Jr. must be rolling in his grave right now, watching the venomous trap of boiling hatred and vengeful entitlement that today's "Black Community" has so eagerly fallen into. The very same trap that feeds them the very same abominable lie that was once fed to the people who enslaved their ancestors: "They aren't really people, because their skin isn't the same color as yours. So it doesn't matter what you do to them, because they're really no better than animals." How is it that black Americans today can venerate the vague memory of MLK Jr. with one half of their consciousness, and completely reject his entire message with the other half? He's the one who so beautifully and simply encapsulated the entire concept of inalienable human dignity in his prayer for the nation his children would grow up in, that they would, "not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character." If that wasn't a divinely inspired petition, I don't know what is.

lol, 'Negro-geddon.' Awesome. I think I just found a new favorite website.

I like the Boondock Saints theory on how to deal with the criminals that seem to just slip through the so-called justice system.

Do not kill. Do not rape. Do not steal. These are principles which every man of every faith can embrace. These are not polite suggestions; these are codes of behavior, and those of you that ignore them will pay the dearest cost.

You know the rest. You know how the story goes.

I may be a small, pretty White girl, but the day a racist black messes with me is the day he wishes he learnt self-restraint. I am fed up with all these black-on-white hate crimes and especially fed up with the fact that they always go unrecognized for what they truly are.

They claim victimization, yet blacks are much more racist against us whites than we ever were towards them. As stated in this article, it is expected of blacks to be resentful and hateful towards whites, or else they are doubted and ridiculed within their own community.

This is absolutely disgusting. While it is nearby impossible to put a stop to this behavior at large, we can arm ourselves with both knowledge and firearms to prepare for the day that one decides to take out their hate upon us.

They think we're defenseless. They are dead wrong.

Sadly, when that day comes (God forbid) the black racist's enablers in the media will make your attacker out to be the victim and paint you as a complete racist. You know it's true, look what they did to George Zimmerman. Hell the media enablers even took the liberty to transform him from a man who lived his entire life as a Hispanic, and turned him into an everyday white guy. If it had been a white guy who Zimmerman was forced to defend himself against. The media would've reported it as a Hispanic minority defending himself from a bigoted white racist. When it comes to race in America, the cards are stacked.

Here’s just one more anti-white hate-killing and violent assault, because of leftist propaganda denigrating Euro-Americans.

Note that he talks of his hatred stemming from what he learned in academia where foolish self-hating whites just can’t seem to denigrate their race enough.

Note too that he is acting against people who have nothing to do with his imagined ills and he has suffered no harm himself. He’s so stupid he thinks killing innocent people today is some kind of payback for what his demented, stupid mind perceives as injustices that require retribution.

And it isn’t just the self-hating bigots in the MSM, the entertainment industry, and academia who prompt this Afro killer to do his dirty work. It is the likes of Tavist Smiley, Cornell West, Michael Dyson, Jesse, Al, Farrakhan and the entire CBC in Congress who spew filth and hatred against white people constantly, roiling up the retards in their general population who involve the vast majority.

Whether it is drugs in black neighborhoods, aids, poverty, the levees blown up in New Orleans, on and on and on, blacks are told and eagerly believe everything is a plot by white people, requiring a get even attitude every chance they get.

And they pursue their hatred with reckless abandon, assaulting, beating, mobbing, robbing, raping and killing, all because they have been told it’s justifiable, because of what they have suffered…….which, of course, is stupidity….nothing else.

This has nothing to do with race. It has to do with MORALITY.
The "state" severed morality from public school education.

Parents don't teach their children morality any longer.
The universities are a branch of the "state".
The father of the child is ultimately responsible for his son's upbringing (Deuteronomy 6).
The "state" shares the blame, and may even be mostly responsible, due to coercing the parents to raise their children in corporate public schools.
Ultimately, when you divorce MORALITY from GOVERNMENT, you end up with "chaos, confusion and every evil thing" (to quote the apostle Paul).
Solution: TEACH MORALITY TO CHILDREN IN THE HOME-SCHOOLING ENVIRONMENT.
Punish the "state" people for creating this social fiasco, and end their tyranny over the "family".

"This has nothing to do with race."

It is ONLY about race and it's deplorable.

There should be an investigation by Congress into the school he attended to find out if they're prompting others to kill people. Without question the FBI should conduct a VERY thorough investigation.

Academia is totally corrupt and they're not only the cause for many feelings of hatred, but they're unmitigated liars as well.

They shouldn't be allowed to brainwash students with hate propaganda based on race or anything else. Such lies are taught in most institutions these last several years and nobody has done the necessary investigative work to expose these corrupt academians.

The family of the murdered girl should file a cause of action against the school this murderer attended for spewing lies that resulted in him committing murder. I'm fairly certain they would win a pretty substantial settlement.

I'm really surprised nobody has written anything that has to do with the information this hater received from the school or that none of the professors or administrators have been interviewed.

All these comments are funny and really just play into the problem, how about we not focus on him being black and them being white, who cares, its not different.

Its sad that the big story here is that he was black and not that women died.

I am what i guess is called "mulatto", so im mixed, and i dont care if ur black, white, pocka-dot, or if u change colors like a damn chameleon.

Stupidity is colorblind.

White folks, u wanna black people to stop treatin u like punks then stop acting like every black man u see just happens to be at that exact spot at that exact time to rob and rape u.

black folks, u want to be treated equally then stop acting like u should be treated better than. yes the world is hard and unfair but the fact is it will never get better if we just keep getting mad because the white man dont wanna give us a chance. they didnt give us freedom, nor did we complain about it until they did, we got off our asses and fought for it.

so lets stop focusing on the past, yes our ancestors had it horrible and yes it was white people ancestors that did it, but consider 1 thing, if our great great great great grandparents were here, do u think they would wanna see us complaining or taking full advantage of the chances they never had. think about it.

Because, Jesse and Al SharpTongue would show up and say he's being discriminated against. Then Eric Holder will show up and set him free. Then he would be a special guest on "The View" with the families of the victims, and then those poor people would have to listen to Whoopie Goldberg and Joy Behar condemn them for their daughters being white and it was their faults because they shouldn't have been in the way when he shot at them. Or, dare I say, according to the Socialist Media and Socialist's in DC, blacks can't be racist. It's mind blowing to me Howard. The injustice that has been done.

I am afraid things will only become progressively worse until we gain control of the dissemination of information, in other words, the media.

The best way to accomplish this would be to have a new network started as trying to purchase an existing outlet, such as NBC, CBS, ABC et al, would be prohibitively expensive and the Liberal owners would never sell to anyone who does not share their Liberal ideology. They are not all as corruptible and contemptible as Al 'Al Jazeera' Gore. This leaves basically someone like the Murdoch family of FOX NEWS fame to create an on air, broadcast news operation on their existing FOX broadcast network. This would require an enormous initial outlay of capital, but as Mr. Murdoch has proven with his cable based model, FOX NEWS Channel, it can not only be done but it can done in such a way as to swamp the competition as has occurred on the FOX NEWS Channel. One look at the ratings and one is immediately reminded of the old adage, "If you build it, they will come". The Murdoch's have been able to enter the cable market and become outrageously successful simply by putting out a unique and immensely popular product in the world of news today, the truth, the unbiased truth.

FACTS : The British under William Wilberforce and Co. together with The USA banned slavery.it took 20 years but they perservered.

They were white Christians. Slavery was evil while it lasted but it was banned thankfully. On to better things. Now all are equal and all make their way in life, black or white as God intended. It has been a long long time since then.
On to a better future for all.

The African Kings mourned their loss as they made a fortune selling Africans from rival tribes to Europeans and that left only the Arabs to trade with. The Arabs only officially banned slavery in the 1970's. Unofficially as most should be aware, they are still slave-trading, sudan one example.

Martin Luther King was not a democrat.
KKK was started by a Democrat and was a dem. movement.

This should have been treated as a hate crime and DC should also be held accountable as this administration pushes division. Terrible thing to happen but then it's a product of the fallen society we live in with all the lies spread around. The US does NOT burn books like the nazis did...The US rewrites and revises (spins) books for politically destructive purposes. We are seeing the start of the masses turning on each other and that is by DC and Globalist design. I am afraid we have not seen the worst yet. And the lieberal news propaganda machine does NOT report anything on this as they too play the part in divisiveness by ONLY irresponsibly and hatefully reporting white on black crime as directed by DC.

Some blacks can still be considered slaves--slaves to a government that supplies them food, healthcare, housing, clothing and all financial government help. Until this is realized they will always be slaves. When a person becomes dependent on the government aids, they will always be slaves and have only themselves to blame. Yes, whites have always been the bad ones, but they are the ones who had the jobs, fed, clothed and sheltered the "slaves". Down in the south, most were considered "family" were given the family name and received land from the owners after the owners died, and were buried in the family cemetery. It was their families who sold them to the slave traders, if they had stayed where they were, most would still be running around with just a little diaper on running around with a spear and hunting for food and living in a hut.

Sometimes I wish you could turn back the clock of time and blacks were not even in the states and then show them where them and their ancestors would have been if they were not slaves in America. I would venture to say 7 out of 10 would not be alive today. Most of them would have been slaves to other black tribes and would not have lived to tell about it. They sure as hell would not be driving cars, reading books and enjoying their freedom and we for sure would never had a black President, Senator, Congressman, Judge, Mayor or politician. They can thank the good slave owners for the clothes on their backs and for their pathway to total freedom they enjoy today. I'm not a RACIST, I'm stateing facts. My ancestors came to this country working as slaves until they paid back the money it cost to bring them to the states and the slaves were treated better than they were. Most of my ancestors won their freedom when they served in the military fighting British Rule. They moved from Virginia to South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama. My father's side came here when they fled Europe because they were soldiers fighting under Napoleon Bonaparte of France and lived in Alabama near Demopolis which means, The People's City or The City Of People. My grandfather's name was Monroe Napoleon Bonaparte Defoor and served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

suddenly this went off from the subject to Christianity. Don't think God is going to help us with this, and I don't think we have an answer of what to do. Recently a black came into a drive in type store. He pulled a knife on the clerk, stole a 6 pack and was shot dead as he exited (by the clerk). The mother shrieked who would shoot someone over a 6 pack of beer. That is all that anyone ever heard, nothing about who would pull a knife .....

The message of Dr. Martin Luther King has been usurped by race baiters. It's not just black people though, who are taught that they are victims. It seems that everyone is clamoring to be identified as a victim of one sort or another these days.

So the blacks are saying that they are so messed up because of white oppression and this is why most blacks are drug addicts, drunks, rapists, murderes, thieves, in jail and come from fatherless homes etc. It's all whitey's fault and all the communist universities et al keep teaching this tripe and that the root of whitey's guilt is the slave trade.
First of all, their fellow blacks in Africa were the ones capturing and selling these blacks to western businessmen, which was more or less acceptable AT THE TIME.
Second, it's been about a hundred and fifty years since the end of slavery in America and about fifty years since the ERA. If these blacks haven't got their  together by now, chances are they never will! White liberal/communists enabling them to stay stuck in this delusion, is not only not helping these blacks, but it's criminal, not to mention completely immoral.
By the way, I'm not talking about the black people who marry and raise children in a stable home, work to support themselves, pay taxes and positively contribute to society.
And don't you dare try and tell me I'm a racist or affix some other kind of demonizing label to me to marginalize me and shut me up. I'm strictly dealing with the facts of history and the facts of modern day reality.
There seems to be only one way left for people to realisticly deal with these sub-human dregs of society, black, white, brown, red, yellow or pink - Conceal Carry Laws!!!

Get the unions out of the schools. We MUST have adults knowing how to think for themselves and not have brainwashed citizens.

The trayvons are going to get worse and more dangerous as time goes by. White people are the favorite target of the trayvons. What puzzles me is that the few black educated persons do not do anything about it. Disgusting and the latte one is proud of his people that voted him into office for another term. God help America.

During the American Civil War The Republican Soldiers in Blue Uniforms rescued the Slaves from the Democrats. The Democrats still want their slaves back.

This a lame excuse for anyone to kill anyone or harm someone! It's kicking dirt in the Black mans face when they this excuse. It didn't hold back the POTUS from seceeding! Now if there under his teaching of his schooling of the past college Maxism, I can see why. There issue is a diffident to over in itself. It seem the issue has gotten worst in the last 4 years when than young folks should in spired! The blood line is week to slavery and Black and white and any colors where In Slavery back than. And don't see Indian's out killing America and they if and would have a beef. By the Blacks sold to the white people first they teach that!

"Students, black and white, learn from their earliest days that blacks are victims and powerless to fight racism, he said.

Not just in school, but also in churches and from their parents, he said."
yes they are powerless as long as they hang on to attitudes that prior to the civil war with slavery damaged them in the here and now. they refuse to let go although the civil war is construed to be about freeing them from slavery although that wasn't originally the case. they cannot fathom that we are all still slaves to the government, especially those who are taking the hangouts from the government and believe the lies put out there aimed at them. they refuse to teach their children better or make sure they get to school and make better grades. those that do go to school and make good grades are harped on and accused to being "uncle toms" for wanting to do better for themselves. at home the children are taught that whites are no good keeping racism alive and well. then you have those like in the video that accosted a security guard for yelling "hey" at some kids until one of them got tazed in front of her kids proving that racism isn't just against whites but their own kind. killing out racism starts at home!! deal with the past and move on to the here and now!!

Soon the economy will GO BUST, states run out of money, can't feed them, so the plan is to set ALL prisoners free to roam the streets to fend for themselves and do what they do best.

The Collective we has allowed every bit of this to happen. We voted for every one of the people in office. Could be that you voted for one of them. I bet you have called conservative candidates stupid, crazy, out of touch, etc. I bet you keep your mouth shut, when not on the computer.
